To conjugate an infinitive verb into the present tense you need to follow two steps:				To put an –ar verb in the preterite (past) tense you need to follow two steps:				Some key Spanish verbs end in –gar.
1) Chop off the infinitive ending (-ar, -er or –ir): hablar				1) Chop the –ar off the infinitive: hablar				These include jugar, colgar and descargar.
2) Add on the correct ending depending on who is doing the verb: hablo = I talk				2) Add on the correct ending depending on who is doing the verb:				These are irregular in the first person in the past tense.
In the table below, you are provided with all of the regular present tense verb endings :				hablé = I talked				We must always add an ‘u’ after the ‘g’:
	-AR	-ER	-IR					Ejemplos:

I talked	hablé
You talked	hablaste
He/she talked	habló
We talked	hablamos*
You (pl) talked	hablasteis
They talked	hablaron

The reason for this is pronunciation!

In Spanish, ‘ge’ makes a ‘h’ sound.

By adding the ‘u’, the word keeps the ‘g’ sound.
