(4) How is each person of The Trinity worshipped?		(5) Lords Prayer & Nicene Creed		(6) Parables
Person	Worship	Lords Prayer “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your Kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Nicene Creed We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally born of the father. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.”		Parable of the Good Samaritan A man going from Jerusalem to Jericho is attacked by robbers who strip him and beat him. A priest and a Levite pass by without helping him. But a Samaritan stops and cares for him, taking him to an inn where the Samaritan pays for his care. Parable of the Sheep and Goats This parable strongly encourages Christians to take action to help those in need. In this parable, Jesus makes it clear that to get to heaven you must help people in need.
The Father	Christians will pray to him, to thank him for his creation of the world.
The Son	Christians will celebrate Christmas and Easter, as these remember his birth and his resurrection.
The Holy Spirit	Christians will go to Pentecostal church and sing, dance and speak in tongue with the Holy Spirit guiding them.
